New York, July 28. The Times' Washington special says that Jeff. Dayls' health is better now than it has been in îve years before.

General Joe, Johnston has applied for pardon, and it is probable that be will get it. Among the grounds presented for this exception is the 100, and to be well authenticated, that flemeral Johnston did at to we nower to being the re-belief to a cless iona before it became to denote that the thing was in a collapsed condition.

The order of the Secretary of War electing bureau for a bell archives, was promulgated a for days ago, but as yet no appointment of a Superintendent has been made. The appoint ment will be made this week.

The reward of $25,000 for the capture of Lloyd, teep a of the hotel 4 Surratille, offered by the lumay Commissioners of Prince George comty, has been repudiated. The other of the reward was shared by the President of the Borrd of County Commissioners, and hed rather unextend al circulation at the time.
